THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This notice takes effect on April 14, 2003 and remains in effect until we replace it.

1. OUR PLEDGE REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION

   The privacy of your medical information is important to us. We understand that your medical information is personal and we are committed to protecting it. We create a record of the care and services you receive at our organization. We need the record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice will tell you about the ways we may use and share medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain duties we have regarding the use and disclosure of medical information.

2. OUR LEGAL DUTY

   Law requires us to:
   a. Keep your medical information private
   b. Give you this notice describing our legal duties, privacy practices, and your rights regarding your medical information.
   c. Follow the terms of the notice that is now in effect.

   We have the right to:
   a. Change our privacy practice and the terms of this notice at any time; provided that the changes are permitted by law.
   b. Make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our notice effective for all medical information that we keep, including information previously created or received before the change.

   Notice of Change to Privacy Practice:
   a. Before we make an important change to our privacy practices, we will change this notice and make the new notice available upon request.

3. USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION

   The following section describes different ways that we use and disclose medical information. Not every use or disclosure will be listed. However, we have listed all the different ways we are permitted to use and disclose medical information. We will not use or disclose your medical information for any purpose not listed below, without your specific written authorization. Any specific written authorization you provide may be revoked at any time by writing us.

   FOR TREATMENT: We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students or other people who are taking care of you. We may also share medical information about you to other health care providers to assist them in treating you.

   FOR PAYMENT: We may use and disclose your medical information for payment purposes.

   FOR HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS: We may use and disclose your medical information for our health care operations. This might include measuring and improving quality, evaluating the performance of employees, conducting training programs, and getting the accreditation, certificates, licenses and credentials we need to serve you.

   ADDITIONAL USES AND DISCLOSURES: In additions to using and disclosing your medical information for treatment, payments and health care operations, we may use and disclose medical information for the following purposes.
Facility Directory: Unless you notify us that you object, the following medical information about you will be placed in our facilities directories, your name, and your locations in our facility, your condition described in general terms, your religious affiliation, if any. We may disclose this information to members of clergy or, except for your religious affiliations, to others who contact us and ask for information about you by name.

Notifications: Medical information to notify or help notify a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care. We will share information about your locations, general condition or death. If you are present, we will get your permission if possible before we share, or give you the opportunity to refuse permission. In case of emergency, and if you're not able to give or refuse permission, we will share only the health information that is directly necessary for your health care, according to our professional judgment. We will also use our professional judgment to make decisions in your best interest about allowing someone to pick up medicine, medical supplies, x-rays or medical information about you.

Disaster Relief: Medical information with a public or private organizations or person who can legally assist in disaster relief efforts.

Fundraising: We may provide medical information to one of our affiliated fundraising foundations to contact you for fundraising purposes. We will limit our use and sharing of information that describes you in general, not personal terms and the dates of your health care. In any fundraising materials, we will provide you a description of who you may choose not to receive future fundraising communications.

Research in Limited Circumstances: Medical information for research purposes in limited circumstances where the research has been approved by a review board that has reviewed that research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of medical information.

Funeral Director, Government Functions: To help them carry out their duties, we may share the medical information of a person who has died with a coroner, medical examiner, funeral director, or an organ procurement organization.

Specialized Government Functions: Subject to certain requirements, we may disclose or use health information for military personnel and veterans, for national security and intelligence activities, for protective services for the President and others, for medical suitability determinations for the Department of State, for correctional institutions and other law enforcement custodial situations, and for government programs providing public benefits.

Court Orders and Judicial and Administrative Proceedings: We may disclose medical information in response to a court or administrative order, subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process, under certain circumstances. Under limited circumstances, such as a court order, warrant, or grand jury subpoena, we may share your medical information with law enforcement officials. We may share limited information with a law enforcement official concerning the medical information of a suspect, fugitive material witness, crime victim or missing person. We may share the medical information of an inmate or other person in lawful custody with the law enforcement officials or correctional institution under certain circumstances.

Public Health Activities: As required by law, we may disclose your medical information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability, including child abuse or neglect. We may also disclose your medical information to person subject to jurisdiction of the Food and drug Administration for purposes of reporting adverse events associated with product defect or problems to enable products recalls, repairs or replacements, to track products or to conduct activities required by the Food and Drug Administration. We may also when we are authorized by law to do so notify a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or other wise be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease or conditions.

Victims of Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence: We may disclose medical information to appropriate authorities if we reasonable believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may share your medical information if it is necessary to prevent a serious threat to you health or safety or the health or safety of others. We may share medical information when necessary to help law enforcement officials capture a person who has admitted to being part of a crime or has escaped from legal custody.

Workers Compensations: We may disclose health information when authorized and necessary to comply with laws relating to workers compensations or other similar programs.
Health Oversight Activities: We may disclose medical information to an agency providing health oversight for oversight activities authorized by law, including audits, civil, administrative or criminal investigations or proceedings, inspections, licensure or disciplinary actions, or other authorized activates.

Law Enforcement: Under certain circumstances, we may disclose health information to law enforcement officials. These circumstances include reporting required by certain laws (such as the reporting of certain types of wounds) pursuant to certain subpoenas or court orders, reporting limited information concerning identifications and location at the requests of law enforcement officials, reports regarding suspected victims of crimes at the request of a law enforcement officials reporting death, crimes on our premises, and crimes in emergencies.

4. YOUR INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

You have a right to:

a. Look at or get copies of your medical information. You may request that we provide copies in a format other than photocopies. We will use that format you request unless it is not practical for us to do so. You must make your request in writing. You may get a form to request access to using the contact information listed at the end of this notice. You may also request access by sending a letter to the contact person listed at the end of this notice. If you request copies, we will charge you $1.00 for each page and postage if you want the copies mail to you. Contact us using the information listed at the end of this notice for a full explanation of our fee structure.

b. Receive a list of all the times we or our business associates shared your medical information for purposes other than treatment, payment and health care operations and other specified exceptions.

c. Request that we place additional restriction on our use or disclosure of your medical information. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in the case of an emergency).

d. Request that we communicate with you about your medical information by different means or to a different location. This request must be made in writing on a separate form.

e. Request that we change your medical information. We may deny your request if we did not create that information you want changed or for certain other reasons. If we deny your request, we will provide you a written explanation. You may respond with a statement of disagreement that will be added to the information you wanted changed. If we accept your request to change the information, we will make reasonable efforts to tell others, including people you name, and to include the changes in any future sharing of that information.

f. If you have received this notice electronically, and wish to receive a paper copy, you have the right to obtain a paper copy by making a request in writing to the Privacy Officer at our office

QUESTIONS AND CONCERNS:

If you have any questions about this notice or if you think that we may have violated your privacy rights, please contact our office at (719) 535-9990. You may also submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with the address to file your complaint, and we will not retaliate in any way if you choose to file a complaint.
I, ____________________________________________________ have received a copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices for the Institute of Plastic Surgery practice in Colorado Springs, CO.

_______________________________________________   _____________________
Signature of patient or guardian       Date

_______________________________________________   _____________________
Signature of witness       Date

EXCELLENCE IN COSMETIC SURGERY